

Southern New England Stumpage price report

2nd quarter 2010 comments:

Red oak lumber market has stabilized from the spring bump up.

We need more biomass markets!

DCR uncertainty added to scarcity of private jobs. Makes me a threatened species - a nasty confluence of events.

Little to no available wood mostly due to landowners holding off selling. Also, too long for permits.